Dear Mr. Edlin:

Thank you for your recent letter with your question about the racial composition of the nation's music conservatories.

My office does not keep such information on hand but I can refer you to a person who may be of assistance to you. She is Ms. Pat Smith at the American Council on Education. She is usually familiar with statistics such as those you are seeking. Her phone in Washington, D.C. is (202)833-4700.

I hope this information will help you in preparing your article.

Warm regards.

Ever sincerely,

Claiborne Pell
